

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Removal Goods from countries outside EU	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inventory in English • B/L or AWB • Copy of the importers passport identification pages • If alcoholic beverages are included in the shipment a detailed inventory is required listing brand, alcohol percentage, numbers and sizes of bottles • PBO cartons must be declared on the inventory to facilitate customs clearance. • Returning Danes must have a certification from authority abroad, employers or the like may be requested as proof of a minimum stay of twelve months outside EU. 	Household goods which have been owned and used for minimum 6 months, and still are intended for owner's use, can be imported duty free by any person taking up residence in Denmark Returning Danes must have had a residence abroad for minimum 12 months to qualify for duty free importation of household goods.	Customs clearance must take place immediately upon arrival of goods. Storage in bonded warehouse is normally not possible.
Diplomatic Removals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inventory. • Franchise issued by the embassy or local foreign mission 	Duty-free
Wedding Trousseau	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inventory. • Declaration signed by both persons. • Marriage certificate. 	Duty-free.	Goods must be for use in normal household. Maximum value EUR 1,000.
Inheritance	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Inventory. • Inheritance certificate signed by client. • Death certificate. • Copy of will or declaration issued and legalised by the Lawyer handling the estate. 	Duty-free within 2 years following the finalization of the estate.	Goods must be for use in normal household.
New items	Invoice	From outside EU, subject to duty and VAT.	Customs clearance must take place within 10 days after arrival, if coming by ship or air. If coming by removal van, it must take place, immediately.
Works of Art	If included in household goods, see "removal goods"; if commercial, see "new items". If for exhibition:	Duty-free.	It is recommended to contact local agent prior to shipment.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Inventory with values. Temporary free entry or ATA-carnet.
Antiques	If included in household goods see "removal goods"; Commercial: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Invoice. Certificate stating at least 100 years. 	Duty free, but subject to VAT (25%).
Household Utensils	If included in household goods see "removal goods", if commercial, see "new items".
Electrical Appliances	If included in household goods, see "removal goods", if commercial, see "new items".		Articles must conform to Danish specifications.
Cars and Motorcycles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Original foreign registration papers Insurance card 	Duty free importation for airplanes, caravans, pleasure crafts, motor trailers , provided these have been in the owners possession and registered as such abroad for a minimum of six months Registration tax, which is extremely high is to be paid. Following customs clearance, the owner in person must present the car to the authorities for registration.	Persons living in Denmark are not permitted to drive vehicles registered abroad.
Other vehicles	If included in household goods, see "removal goods", if not see "new items".		Generally speaking, there are a variety of specific regulations for import of motor driven vehicles to Denmark. Contact with local agent prior to shipment is recommended.
Gifts, souvenirs	EU rules apply
Accompanied luggage	None.	Duty free
Machines, implements and spare parts	In principle see "new items".		Under some circumstances, there are special rules for scientific equipment, spare parts etc., contact with local agent prior to shipment is recommended.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Restricted import wine, spirits or tobacco	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Invoice. • Certificate of origin. 	Any quantities of wine, spirits or tobacco included in household goods shipment must be declared to be for personal consumption and will attract duty and tax. The general regulation is that Customs only will accept a maximum: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 10 liters of spirits • 20 liters fortified wine not exceeding 22% volume • 90 liters of wine of which max. 60 liters may be sparkling wine • 110 liters of beer Larger quantities will be considered as commercial import and may only be imported by licensed importers.	As the amount of duties and taxes will be assessed on the value and quantity of the beverage or tobacco to be imported it is not possible to indicate a general level of duties. Please note that all quantities, whether in unopened or opened bottles, will be assessed taxes and duties Due to the high taxes, there is a strict control by import and it is not advisable to include spirits in removals.
Tinned goods	If small quantities imported with household goods, see "removal goods"; otherwise. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Veterinary certificate. • Origin certificate. 	Rules are varying.
General food	Same rules as for "tinned goods".
Arms, ammunition and dangerous items	Hunting / Shotguns: If imported with household goods, see "removal goods"; others: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Import licence from Ministry of Justice, issued through local Police office. • Shooting permit. 	Prohibited (unless a special license is obtained from the Danish Ministry of Justice).
Sport items	If included in household goods, see "removal goods"; If for competitions:	Temporary free entry.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Valued inventory.
Narcotics Medicines not approved by the Danish Health Authorities		Prohibited (unless a special license is obtained from the Danish Ministry of Justice).
Precious metal items	If included in household goods, see "removal goods"; otherwise see "new items".		Import and possession of gold and silver in bars is prohibited.
Carpets	If included in household goods, see "removal goods"; otherwise see "new items".
Plants		Prohibited (unless the Danish Governmental Plant Protection Service grants a license based on certificate from authorities at origin that the plants are free from disease)
Pets	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Health certificate not more than 1 month old issued by the Veterinarian Authorities at origin. Certificate for rabies vaccination (issued at least 3 weeks but not more than 12 months prior departure) Identification of the animal (tattoo or microchip) must be verified against health certificates before any entry is allowed 	May be imported from most countries provided the required documents are valid and available at the port of entry	Pets from certain countries may be required to undergo a rabies serological test prior to importation into the EU. Please always refer to us for up-to-date information prior to importation. Under normal circumstances quarantine will not be required for healthy animalsd.
Other animals		Prohibited live, dead and pre-manufactured parts of animals as mentioned in the Washington Convention (unless the Danish Nature Conservancy Board grants a license).	