Removal goods from outside the E.C.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Import declaration (Customs form C3). • Inventory of the goods detailing contents of all cartons. 	Duty free entry in the following circumstances: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The importer must have had his normal home outside the EC for at least 12 months and must be transferring his normal home to the E.C. to take up permanent residence. • The goods must have been in the possession and used by the importer for at least 6 months in the country where he had his normal home and must be tax paid. • The goods must be tax/VAT paid at the place of purchase. • The owner must have arrived in the E.C. before Customs clearance can take place, and the goods must arrive within 12 months of the arrival of the owner. • Goods may be removed to an APPROVED DEPOSITORY on payment of a duty deposit (refundable), if arrival of goods is up to 6 months before arrival of the owner. • The owner must retain the goods for personal use for at least 12 months. • No duty/VAT allowance is given in respect of alcoholic drink, tobacco or tools of trade. 	The owner of the goods must complete a Customs Form C3, which can be done prior to arrival of shipment, but the date of arrival in the E.C. must be given. The shipment cannot be Customs cleared before the arrival of the owner in the E.C. Shipments can be removed under bond to an H.M. CUSTOMS APPROVED DEPOSITORY, for storage until arrival of the owner in the E.C. (Some BAR members have such depositories). H.M. Customs have given special agreement that Removal goods destined to any E.C. country can be imported into the U.K. on completion of the Customs form C3 and compliance with other requirements, including payment of any duties and VAT. The goods can then be moved freely throughout the E.C. If foodstuffs are mentioned on the inventory without precise details, Port Health Authorities may stop and unload the container at port and all foodstuffs will be checked prior to release. This will obviously increase costs to the customers and increase the risk of damage to effects. This issue can be alleviated by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attach a full, itemised list of foodstuffs included in the shipment along with the inventory list. • Advise clients that there are restrictions on foodstuffs and advise against shipping these items. It is important to note that only dried/tinned non-perishable food
